Dear Mars Hill Friends,

By now you may have heard about our new extended prayer ministry that we call "The Wall".

To find out more about how you can submit, or, if so inclined, publically post your request on our prayer wall please click on "The Wall" banner on this website.

The Mars Hill Network is committed to bring to its listeners only the finest in Christian programming and inspirational music. Our Program Committee meets on a regular basis to review new programs for possible airing in the future. The committee also responds to your concerns regarding our current programming, as well as gives attention to your requests for scheduling new programs.

Our Music Committee works diligently in reviewing selected music before approving it for air play. They weigh such things as Biblical accuracy, relevancy, musical style, and determining whether the musical piece bring a clear message.

We here at the Mars Hill Network thank you, our listeners, for your efforts in letting others know that we're at their service 24/7. We thank you for those of you who partner with us with financial support, and we are blessed to know that so many of you are praying regularly for this Christian media ministry...bringing "Hope in the Journey"

Serving you with Hope,

Wayne Taylor
