Dear Mars Hill Friend,

Have you really thought much about the value of Christian media, in the midst of a chaotic and morally declining culture?

Frankly, though I work in Christian media ministry, I've taken a good hard look recently at the privilege of broadcasting the gospel, airing powerful Bible teaching programs, and delivering Christ centered music. And, in this "pay for everything" world...we bring it all to you at no cost.

The privilege of Christian radio and media, I am sure, is under the watchful eye of those in high places who reject our message. Each day of Christian broadcasting is priceless. Each moment of ministering the Word of God is vital.

Won't you consider, this year, of financially investing in the Mars Hill Network?

Many of you faithfully support, and we are indebted to you, but many of you have not made that decision. We're asking you to prayerfully consider giving what you can during our Harvest fundraiser so that we can continue to carry on with the only message that has eternal reward, Christ and Him alone.

Look for our Harvest coupon in our recent newsletter, participate in our Harvest on-air event October 21 and 22, connect with us on Facebook, or call our business office. There are several ways that you can give, helping Christians like yourself to grow, and to reach those who are just waiting to hear about Jesus.

We're building on the Solid Rock...with you,
